PLAINTIFFS-APPELLEES' PRELIMINARY COUNTERSTATEMENT OF ISSUES

Pursuant to Rule of Appellate Procedure § 63-4(a)(1), the plaintiffs-appellees present the following preliminary counterstatement of issues for appeal:

1. If the Court should find reversible error in any regard, which it should not and cannot on this record, the plaintiffs-appellees hereby give notice under Appellate Rule § 63-4(1)(c) that they request such new hearing, re-hearing, or new trial on such issue or issues as may be appropriate, rather than the direction of judgment by the reviewing court.¹

2. Such alternate grounds of affirmance as may be present themselves upon further review of the record and/or upon further clarification of the issues that the defendants-appellees will present on appeal.
